

Draft Program -Visit DiverseAg.org/SLC for the latest Information

Pre-Conference Organic Fruits and Vegetables Workshop

Tuesday February 26, 2013

|       |                                                                                                                            |
|-------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 8:00  | Gather                                                                                                                     |
| 8:25  | Introductory remarks                                                                                                       |
| 8:30  | Long-term effects of Four Groundcover Management Systems in an Apple Orchard . Dr. Amaya Atucha, Colorado State University |
| 9:15  | A Year in the Life of an Organic Peach. Rick and Marilyn Lynn Rama Farm, Washington                                        |
| 10:00 | Break                                                                                                                      |
| 10:30 | Organic Certification. Dr. Jennifer Reeve Utah State University                                                            |
| 11:15 | Managing Pests in Organic Specialty Crop Systems through Soil Health. Dr. Lori Hoagland, Purdue                            |
| 12:00 | Discussion                                                                                                                 |
| 12:30 | Lunch                                                                                                                      |
| 1:30  | Principles of Sustainable Weed Management. Dr. Tim Miller Washington State University                                      |
| 2:15  | David Bell Vegetable Grower                                                                                                |
| 3:00  | Break                                                                                                                      |
| 3:15  | Organic Vegetable Research at Utah State University. Dr. Dan Drost Utah State University                                   |
| 4:00  | Organic Tree-fruit Research at Utah State University. Dr. Jennifer Reeve Utah State University                             |
| 4:30  | Open Discussion / Listening and future research priorities                                                                 |
| 5:00  | Workshop Ends                                                                                                              |

Urban and Small Farms Conference

Wednesday February 27, 2013

| Time  | Berry/Vegetable                                                                                     | Production                                                                                                                                        | Direct Marketing & Management                                                                                                                                                                           |
|-------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 8:00  | Blackberry Variety Updates - Brent Black, USU                                                       | Promoting Beneficial Insects on Your Farm-Katie Wagner, USU                                                                                       | Cottage Food and Incubator Kitchen - Karin Allen, USU                                                                                                                                                   |
|       | High-tunnels, Low-tunnels and Supplemental Heating for Strawberry Production - Tiffany Maughan, USU |                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 8:45  | Principles of Sustainable Weed Management - Tim Miller, WSU Weed Specialist                         | Backyard Chickens - David Frame, USU                                                                                                              | Farm to School Growing New opportunities - Julie Peck-Dabling, Jed Christensen, Dana Adams, Jana Cruz, and Jenilee McComb                                                                               |
| 9:30  | "Fruit-feeding insects" in the Berry/Vegetables - Diane Alston, USU                                 | Good Agricultural Practices - Shawn Olsen, USU                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 10:00 | Break                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 10:30 | Bees & Pesticides- Cory Stanley, USU                                                                | Land Use Issues - Susan Yoshinaga, Greenbelt and Exemptions, SL County and Bridget Stuchly, Office of Sustainability & Environment Salt Lake City | Legal Liabilities Concerning the Production, Storage, Transfer and Sale of Food Products - Jay Schvaneveldt                                                                                             |
|       | UBGA Business Meeting                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 11:15 | Spotted Wing Drosophila and Aphids in Berries - Jana Lee, USDA                                      |                                                                                                                                                   | Slideridge Honey - Martin James                                                                                                                                                                         |
| noon  | Lunch - Included in conference Registration                                                         |                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 1:00  | Diversification in High Tunnels Makes Small Farms More Profitable - Dan Drost, USU                  | Irrigation of Small Plots - Niel Allen, USU                                                                                                       | Local Food Scene Updates - Kim Angeli                                                                                                                                                                   |
| 1:45  | Common Diseases in Vegetables - Claudia Nischwitz, USU                                              | High Tunnel Growing Calendar - Britney Hunter, USU                                                                                                | Identifying and Building Your Local Market - Dave Oblock, Crumb Brothers                                                                                                                                |
| 2:30  | Break                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 3:00  | Common Insects in Vegetables/Berries - Diane Alston                                                 | NRCS Programs - David Hanson, USDA                                                                                                                | Marketing Outlets for Your Products Panel Discussion -Matt Caputo, Caputo's Deli,Chantelle Bourdeaux, A Priori Specialty Foods, Scott Evans, owner Pago and Finca, and Allen Stutz, Wasatch Coop Market |
| 3:45  | Gearing Up for Hi Production in Utah - Dan Drost, USU                                               | FSA Programs - Arthur Douglas and Bill York - USDA                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 4:15  | Sunburn Management for Pepper - Sam Day, USU                                                        | Marketable Fruit From the Backyard - Brent Black, USU                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 5:00  | Conference Ends                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                         |